

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
Plaintiff,
v.
HENRY JOVANNY AMBRIZ, Defendant.

Case No. 17-MJ-0292-1 (RAO)

ORDER OF DETENTION

I.

The Court conducted a detention hearing:

- On motion of the Government [18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1)] in a case:
allegedly involving:
     a crime of violence.
     an offense with a maximum sentence of life imprisonment or death.

- 1           ( ) a narcotics or controlled substance offense with the maximum 2           sentence of ten or more years.
- 3           ( ) any felony – where defendant convicted of two or more prior 4           offenses described above.
- 5           ( ) any felony that is not otherwise a crime of violence that involves a 6           minor victim, or possession of a firearm or destructive device or any 7           other dangerous weapon, or a failure to register under 18 U.S.C.
8           § 2250.

9

10          ☒ On motion by the Government or on the Court's own motion
11         [18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(2)] in a case allegedly involving, on further allegation by the 12         Government of:

- 13           ( X) a serious risk that defendant will flee 14           ( ) a serious risk that the defendant will ( ) obstruct or attempt to 15           obstruct justice; ( ) threaten, injure or intimidate a prospective witness
16           or juror, or attempt to do so.

17

18          ☒ The Court concludes that the Government is entitled to a rebuttable
19         presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure 20         the defendant's appearance as required and the safety of any person or the 21         community [18 U.S.C. § 3142(e)(2)].

22

23           II.

- 24          ☒ The Court finds that no condition or combination of conditions will 25         reasonably assure: ☒ the appearance of the defendant as required.
26                           ☒ the safety of any person or the community.
27          ☐ The Court finds that the defendant has not rebutted by sufficient evidence
28         to the contrary the presumption provided by statute.

III.

The Court has considered: (a) the nature and circumstances of the offense(s) charged, including whether the offense is a crime of violence, a Federal crime of terrorism, or involves a minor victim or a controlled substance, firearm, explosive, or destructive device; (b) the weight of evidence against the defendant; (c) the history and characteristics of the defendant; and (d) the nature and seriousness of the danger to any person or the community. [18 U.S.C. § 3142(g)] The Court also considered all the evidence adduced at the hearing and the arguments, the arguments of counsel, and the report and recommendation of the U.S. Pretrial Services Agency.

IV.

The Court bases its conclusions on the following:

- ☒ As to risk of non-appearance: foreign ties; no known bail resources; prior failure to appear
  - ☒ As to danger to the community: facts and charge alleged in complaint

V.

- The Court finds a serious risk that the defendant will
    - obstruct or attempt to obstruct justice.
    - threaten, injure or intimidate a prospective witness or juror, or attempt to do so.

The Court bases its conclusions on the following:

VI.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the defendant be detained until trial.

25 The defendant will be committed to the custody of the Attorney General for 26 confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from 27 persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal

28 The defendant will be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel. On order of a Court of the United States or on request of any attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which defendant is confined will deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.
